The Maryland Professional Employees Council (MPEC) Will Hold a Caravan & Rally to Call on Board of Public Works Members to Vote No on Hogan Budget Cuts

MPEC, a state employee union representing 5,000 state workers, will hold a caravan and rally outside of the Louis L. Goldstein Treasury Building to call on Comptroller Peter Franchot and Treasurer Nancy Kopp to reject the nearly $700 million in budget cuts proposed by Governor Larry Hogan's administration. The caravan will include state employees who will be directly affected by Gov. Hogan's draconian cuts in addition to Maryland residents who don't want these critical cuts to affect public service. The rally will feature remarks from state employees that deliver essential services to Marylanders as well as MPEC President Jerry Smith.
